

DIPA POT

Synthesis in sculpture.

Beauty and brawn, statement and substance, the hand-pressed pot is a multi-faceted presence. An outdoor-appropriate piece designed to weather the elements, and a gently curved, delicately edged sculpture, all the same.

Shaped by a skilled craftsman, each piece highlights the movement of the hands flowing along the shape. Once dried, the pot develops a porous texture and off-white finish — a sensory reward for peering closer.

Balance with the Dipa Pot Small.
