

RIVER TABLE

Where statue and service speak.

Synthesising the natural world and the personal space, this riverstone side table is as untouched as possible. Each piece unique in colouring, texture and trademark blemishes – bold in its beautiful beginning.

Honouring what already exists, each piece is assembled from raw, natural stone collected from riverbeds in an Indonesian temple village. The top face is polished, creating a functional and durable surface.

DIMENSIONS 490w x 370d x 510h (52kg approx.)
