

ROMAN STOOL

An earthy classic.

Drawing on classical orders of architecture, this piece is defined by its Roman-like column base and rounded top. Carved from solid grey marble, this plinth carries the weight of stone shaped over time.

Suited as either a plinth, side table, or even a stool, this piece invites use without instruction — functional yet resolutely artful.

The natural veining of the marble is celebrated on all sides and inherently unique to each piece, with a polished top surface to ensure practicality and longevity.

DIMENSIONS 350w x 350d x 500h (45kg approx.)
