

ZAKA POT

A vessel of connection.

Alluding to an ancestral urn, the tapered outdoor pot is inspired by another time and place, transplanted to the contemporary space.

A symbol of remembrance and beauty, each piece maintains a connection to its maker. Every step is executed by hand, pressed and moulded, allowing individual details to surface in the final piece. As it dries, a porous surface develops, an unpolished appeal unfolds.

Available in a series of three sizes — a collection, a family — intended for a varied display.
